

Please Join Us!

A One-Day Workshop: Person Centered Organizations

Sponsored by the Minnesota Department of Human Services (DHS) Facilitated by the University of Minnesota's Research and Training Center on Community Living (RTC)

This free workshop, designed for Home and Community Based Service (HCBS) providers, focuses on how to create organizational change in order to become a more person centered agency or facility. Participants will use an organizational development guide to help identify areas for improvement and develop strategies to incorporate more effective person centered practices.

Eight workshops are planned around the state.
They will be held from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm at these locations:

Minneapolis	UMN Urban Research & Outreach Center 2001 Plymouth Avenue North	Monday	March 2
New Brighton	New Brighton Community Center 400 10th Street Northwest	Tuesday	March 3
Cloquet	Cloquet Forestry Center 175 University Road	Friday	March 13
Rochester	Public Utilities Building 4000 East River Road NE	Thursday	March 26
New Ulm	Recreation Center 122 South Garden Street	Friday	March 27
Eagan	Lebanon Hills Park 860 Cliff Road	Monday	March 30
St. Cloud	Stearns History Museum 235 South 33rd Avenue	Thursday	April 2
Fergus Falls	YMCA 1164 Friberg Avenue	Friday	April 3

Who should attend: One to four people from each organization who have responsibilities for the planning and implementation of programming and services. These may include direct service providers, supervisors, managers, and/or agency execs.

Beverages and snacks will be provided. Lunch will be on your own.

To Register, go here:
<http://goo.gl/forms/3YaGAUYDur>

For more information, contact Joe Timmons at timm0119@umn.edu or call 612 624 5659.