

Examples: FQHC/RHC Global Encounters for MCO Enrollees

MHCP requires Federally Qualified Health Centers and Rural Health Clinics (FQHCs/RHCs) to submit encounter claims to MHCP for recipients enrolled in a managed care organization (MCO) and receiving services billed to the MCO as a global procedure/package. Use the examples below as guidelines.

Example I	Date of Service	MCO Claim Bill one global procedure	MHCP Claims Submit multiple encounters
Jane Doe is enrolled with an MCO. She receives her antepartum care through RHC1. RHC1 submits to the MCO one claim with the last service date; to MHCP multiple claims, one for each service date that a corresponding face-to-face encounter with an RHC professional took place.		59425	0519	59425

Example II	Date of Service	MCO Claim Bill one global procedure	MHCP Claims Submit multiple encounters
John Doe is enrolled with an MCO. He receives his dentures (impressions, dentures, adjustments) from FQHC2. FQHC2 submits to the MCO one claim with the delivery date; to MHCP multiple claims, one for each service date that a corresponding face-to-face encounter with an FQHC professional took place. Example IV	Date of Service	MCO Claim Bill one global procedure	MHCP Claims Submit multiple encounters
After several visits, the recipient changes to another clinic. RHC1 submits a claim to the MCO with procedure code 59425, antepartum only, and the MCO pays the claim. RHC1 must submit new encounter reporting claims to MHCP with revenue code 0519 and procedure code 59425. MHCP will make settlement payment to RHC1 only for encounters based on 0519 59425 claims because the MCO paid the 59425 claim.		59425	0519	59425
