

VirtualPresence Announcement

245D Licensing Standards

Oct. 7, 2014 10 a.m. - noon

Description

This session is an opportunity for 245D licensed providers to receive additional guidance related to 245D standards, as well as ongoing compliance expectations including what to expect during a licensing review. DHS will also provide an update on 2014 legislative changes.

This training will not cover positive behavior supports, the behavioral intervention report form, emergency use of manual restraints, and other restrictive interventions.

- Training on these topics will be part of the Positive Supports Community of Practice (PSCoP) series located on the PSCoP webpage.
- Training material and handouts from past PSCoP meetings are on the Disability Services Division Training Handouts Archive page.

This is a VirtualPresence session allowing participants to attend in a variety of ways:

1. At a county site via videoconference – multiple sites are available across Minnesota (listed below)
 2. Livestream via the internet – use a computer or smart phone to join via the live stream (link below)

Target Audience
