

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Net Income Limits and Deductions

For SNAP cases with an Elderly/Disabled unit member there is no Gross Income Test. If the SNAP unit's gross income is over 165% FPG, the household is subject to a net income test. Use the information below as a guide for the gross and net income limits.

10/1/2014 Gross Income Amounts – 165 % of FPG

UNIT SIZE	INCOME LIMITS
-----------	---------------

1	$1,605
2	$2,163
3	$2,722
4	$3,280
5	$3,838
6	$4,396
7	$4,955
8	$5,513
	$ 559

For each additional member

10/1/2014 Net Income Amounts – 100 % of FPG

UNIT SIZE	INCOME LIMITS
-----------	---------------

1	$ 973
2	$ 1,311
3	$ 1,650
4	$ 1,988
5	$ 2,326
6	$ 2,665
7	$ 3,003
8	$ 3,341
	$ 339

See page 2 for details of deductions from Gross Income

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Net Income Limits and Deductions

The following deductions are subtracted from your Gross Income:

- Utility Deduction – Do you pay for heat and/or air conditioning? Yes / No
Do you pay for electricity? Yes / No
Do you pay for a phone? Yes / No
- Housing Costs – How much do you pay for rent/mortgage, property taxes, property insurance, etc.?
- Medical Deductions for Elderly/Disabled (E/D) persons: A medical deduction is given when you have more than $35 in allowable medical expenses. (Example, Part B Medicare costs $ 104.90/month less $ 35 and $ 69.90 could be given as a medical deduction.) Do you have other medical expenses?
These medical expenses can be paid or unpaid. Yes / No
- Child Support Deductions: Do you pay child support for child/children that do not live with you? Yes / No
- Dependent Care Deduction: Do you pay for someone to care for a child or adult? Yes / No
NOTE: Dependent Care deductions are for children or adults that need care when a household member is employed, seeks employment or is in school or training to prepare for employment. There is no maximum or minimum deduction amount.

The following deductions are subtracted from your gross income by MAXIS, the automated eligibility system:

- Earned Income Disregard: This is a deduction of 20% from your gross earned income. This deduction is given to those who are working.
- Standard Disregard: ALL household will receive a standard deduction depending on your Food Support household size. The deductions are: For household sizes of 1 to 3 the standard deduction: $152; 4 = $163; 5 = $191; and for households of 6 or more the standard deduction is $219.

Other Deductions: If you are farming and expect to receive $1,000 or more in annual gross farming income and have a lot of deductions you may be eligible for another deduction. See your worker for more information about this deduction.